

Workshop on Regional Economic Inequalities

April 27, 2026

A one-day in-person workshop, hosted by CY Cergy Paris Université, under the Linking National and Regional Inequalities project, with presentations by selected participants on regional economic inequalities.

Attendance is open and free. Register by email to gregory.verdugo@cyu.fr for updates and additional information.

Location : Maison de la recherche des Chênes, CY Cergy Paris Université, 3 Rue des Chênes Pourpres, 95000 Cergy. RER stop: Cergy Préfecture.

Workshop Program

10:00–10:30 Registration & Coffee

10:30–12:00 Session 1: Capital & Wealth (Chair: Pawel Bukowski, University College London)

Clément Malgouyres (CREST): The Aggregate Consequences of Local Capital Taxation

Joel Suss (London School of Economics): Spatial wealth inequality in the US: new methods, theory and evidence

12:00–13:00 Lunch

13:00–14:30 Session 2: Migration & Economic Activity (Chair: Luis Bauluz, CUNEF Universidad)

Joan Monras (Universitat Pompeu Fabra): Floating Population: Migration with(out) Family and the Spatial Distribution of Economic Activity

Clara Santamaria (Sciences Po) From Mouse's Head to Lion's Tail: Movers and the City Size Earnings Premium

15:00–16:30 Session 3 Metro Areas & Suburbs (Chair: Mark Fransham, University of Oxford)

Ismir Mulalic (Copenhagen Business School): The Geography of Life: Evidence from Copenhagen

Allison Green (London School of Economics): Cities Without Suburbs? Large Municipal Boundary Expansions and Local Public Finance

16:30–17:00 Launching event of the regional inequality database website